

FortunePots — Privacy Policy

This policy explains what information the FortunePots website interface (the "Interface") collects and how it's handled. FortunePots is a non-custodial, wallet-based application, we do not operate user accounts and do not collect names, emails, or passwords unless you voluntarily contact us.

1. Information we do NOT collect

No account registration, name, email, or password.

No private keys or seed phrases — we never ask for and never receive these.

No custody of funds.

2. Information processed

Wallet address & on-chain activity. When you connect a wallet and transact, your public wallet address and transactions are recorded on the public Solana blockchain. This data is public, permanent, and outside our control — we cannot alter or delete it. The Interface reads it to display pools, activity and winners.

Technical/log data. Our hosting provider and RPC provider may automatically process technical data such as IP address, browser/device type, and timestamps to deliver and secure the service.

Analytics (if enabled). We may use privacy-respecting analytics to understand aggregate usage, data is anonymized.

3. How we use information

To operate, maintain, secure, and improve the Interface; to display on-chain data; to comply with legal obligations; and to enforce our Terms (including geographic and sanctions restrictions).

4. Sharing

We do not sell your personal information. Data may be processed by service providers acting on our behalf (hosting, RPC, analytics) and disclosed if required by law or to protect rights and safety. On-chain data is inherently public.

5. Third-party services

The Interface interacts with third parties including the Solana network, RPC providers, the ORAO VRF oracle, wallet providers.

Their handling of data is governed by their own policies.

6. Cookies

The Interface uses browser local storage to maintain app state and improve user experience.

In addition, it may use cookies to:

Store user preferences and session information

Enhance functionality and performance

Support analytics and usage tracking

Facilitate secure authentication and account management

Users can manage or disable cookies through their browser settings. Please note that disabling cookies or local storage may limit certain features or functionality of the Interface.

7. Your rights

Depending on your location, you may have rights to access, correct, or delete personal data, or object to processing (e.g., under GDPR or CCPA). Note: on-chain data cannot be modified or deleted by us. To exercise rights regarding data we control, contact contact@FortunePots.com.

8. Children

The Interface is not directed to, and may not be used by, anyone under 18 years old. We do not knowingly process data from such persons.

9. International transfers

Data may be processed in multiple jurisdictions outside your country of residence. By using the Interface, you acknowledge and consent to such processing where permitted by applicable law.

10. Changes

We may update this policy; material changes will be posted with a new effective date.
